

NURSING & MIDWIFERY LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE 2017

Government of Western Australia
Department of Health
Nursing and Midwifery Office

Feedback from 2015

"The networking opportunities were invaluable and the standard of presenters impressive."

"One of the best I have been to in recent years."

"Can't wait for the next one!"

Following the overwhelming successes of the 2013 and 2015 Nursing and Midwifery Leadership Conferences, we are excited to announce the 2017 conference on Thursday, 30 November to Friday, 1 December 2017 at the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre, Perth, Western Australia.

The conference theme is 'Celebrating the Why' and will centre around leading change and delivering care-effective, cost effective and performance-effective leadership. Nursing and midwifery executives, front-line leaders, educators and researchers will come together to celebrate and share their leadership insights and their achievements.

The conference will stimulate and equip attendees with new ideas and tools for increasing their effectiveness in healthcare leadership at all levels.
